VIRTUOSO PRO is tailor-made for streamers and gamers alike. Its airy open back ear cups create a natural, spacious sound stage, giving your games and media new dimension and realism. You're also tuned-in to your environment – you can speak and interact while wearing the headset just as you would normally. With VIRTUOSO PRO, streaming and content creation is more natural than ever.

VIRTUOSO PRO produces sensational sound with 50mm graphene drivers, an emergent technology that revolutionizes headset performance. Stiffer than typical drivers, graphene virtually eliminates distortion and delivers radically rich, detailed acoustics with stunning precision. Through the power of graphene, VIRTUOSO PRO's audio drivers reveal layers of details in games and media that previously went undetected.

Airflow through the ear cups ensures your ears stay cool through even the longest streaming sessions and playthroughs. The headband that rests easy on your head and plush memory foam ear pads make long-form listening uncommonly comfortable.

VIRTUOSO PRO works seamlessly with Elgato Wave Link software for mixing, balancing, and orchestrating multiple audio sources at once. Wave Link also accesses NVIDIA® Broadcast for advanced background noise and echo reduction, as well as a host of VSTs that liven up your streams and content, so live productions are always pitch-perfect.

Broadcast yourself brilliantly on the detachable uni-directional microphone with noise cancellation. Alternatively, you can simply remove the microphone boom to use an XLR or USB mic instead, making VIRTUOSO PRO ideal for any pro setup.
